Norwich	Reflections for Lent 2020	Croft, Herbert, Pritchard, Wink		9781781401538	£4.99	Reflections for Lent is designed to enhance your spiritual journey through the forty days from Ash Wednesday to Holy Saturday (26 February - 11 April 2020). Covering Monday to Saturday each week, it offers reflections on readings from the Common Worship Lectionary, written by some of today's leading spiritual and theological writers. Each day includes: * Full lectionary details for Morning Prayer * A reflection on one of the Bible readings * A Collect for the day This volume offers daily material for 26 February to 11 April 2020, taken from the Reflections for Daily Prayer 2019/20 annual edition. It is ideal for individuals and groups seeking Lectionary-based reflections for use during Lent and Holy Week, or for anyone wishing to try Reflections for Daily Prayer before committing to a year's worth of material. It also features a simple form of morning and night prayer and a guide to keeping a good Lent.	Daily Readings	2020
Macmillan	Saying Yes To Life	Varerio	Ruth	9780281083770	£9.99	Saying Yes to Life lifts our focus from natural, everyday concerns to issues that are having an impact on millions of lives around the world. As people made in the image of God, we are entrusted to look after what he has created: to share in God's joy and ingenuity in making a difference for good. Ruth Valerio imaginatively draws on the Days of Creation (Genesis 1) as she relates themes of light, water, land, the seasons, other creatures, humankind, Sabbath rest and resurrection hope to matters of environmental, ethical and social concern. Foundational to Saying Yes to Life is what it means to be human and, in particular, to be a follower of Jesus. Voices from around the world are heard throughout, and each	General reading	2020
Macmillan	Grace-filled Wilderness, The	Smith	Magdalen	9780281080106	£9.99	The Grace-filled Wilderness connects contemporary encounters of wilderness with the traditional themes of Lent and Jesus' journey to the cross. Introducing a series of 'double-edged' subjects, the author uncovers how these bring us life as well as potentially drain life from us when we fall into them in the wrong way. How we deal with our appetites; what gives us identity; how to live with the freedom and power we hold; ways to overcome the underlying anxiety which is wrapped around so much of contemporary life and faith – all of these are explored in connection with what it means to be followers of Jesus. And as each week progresses from 'wilderness to grace', we move through Lent and Holy Week into the glorious hope of Easter.	Daily Readings	2020
Macmillan	Way Of Benedict, The	Johns	Laurentia	9780281075812	£9.99	The Rule of St Benedict, written for monks in the sixth century, continues to hold an extraordinary appeal to people in our day. It offers a balanced approach to seeking God and integrating prayer, work and relationships in a way that is more essential than ever in our stress-riven society. For St Benedict, the whole of life has a Lenten character, that is, it should be driven by the power of Easter which permeates every aspect of the day with the transforming power of Christ's resurrection. The book aims to help readers to engage directly with The Rule of St Benedict. The essential argument is that the Rule offers a way of accessing the transforming power of grace by following the gospel in everyday life, and so is potentially a blessing for every Christian. While the centrality of Easter in the Rule makes the book ideal as a Lent book, it also means that The Way of Benedict can serve as a guide to the wisdom of the Rule throughout the year. While not a commentary on the Rule, the book follows the shape of the	General reading	2020

Macmillan	My Sour-sweet Days	Oakley	Mark	9780281080328	£9.99	George Herbert is one of the great 17th century poet-priests. His poems embrace every shade of the spiritual life, from love and closeness, to anger and despair, to reconciliation and hope. And his work is always rich with audacious playfulness: he seems to take God on, knowing God will win, as if he's having an argument with a faithful friend he is confident is not going to leave. In much of theology and spirituality, God is a critical spectator to human lives, but for Herbert, his sense of relationship with God is primarily of a friendship that can never be broken.  These are some of the themes Mark Oakley explores in this outstanding book. He offers a poem for every day in Lent, with	General reading	2020

Norwich	Where The Lost Things Go	Berry	Lucy	9780232534405	£6.99	Where The Lost Things Go is a 'practically perfect' Lent course for small group study - or for reading on one's own - based on the popular film Mary Poppins Returns. Poet and minister Lucy Berry skilfully draws out some of the themes of the Oscarnominated movie (which stars Emily Blunt, Ben Whishaw and Lin-Manuel Miranda) and shows how we can consider them more deeply alongside passages from the Bible. The course is based around five weekly sessions, entitled: Were we dreaming? Belief and unbelief; This can't be happening! Loss, denial and acceptance; The Banks children? Or the Bank s children?; Lost people, being found: Fogs and the wilderness; Light! A seriously heavy symbol. Each session includes suggested clips from the film, as well as discussion questions, Bible readings and closing prayers. There are detailed notes, advice and additional questions for leaders to help them plan an enriching group study in which all group members can feel accepted and involved. And the book contains an additional section for those who wish to make a deeper study of Mary	Course	2020
Macmillan	Wind, The Fountain And The	Barrett	Mark	9781472968371	£10.99	The Book of Psalms has always formed the substance of the daily prayer of Christian monks and nuns. In The Wind, The Fountain and the Fire, a Benedictine monk offers a path for all of us through the five weeks of Lent, by opening the Psalms as a gateway to scriptural prayer.  Powerful imagery abounds in these ancient poems of prayer. The book finds in these images keys which can unlock both our understanding of scripture and knowledge of our own hearts. The chapter themes are: The Desert, the Mountain, the Well, the Pool and the Tomb. The Psalter is seem to be both the gateway to and the summation of all the other books of the Bible. The psalms put into words the messy complexity of how we actually experience our relationship with God and one another as well as all the swamps and wild places of our	Weekly Readings	2020

Marston	You Are Mine: Daily Bible rea	Walker	David	9780857467584	£8.99	'Again and again, as I have sought to look into both the scriptures and my own life, I have heard in the silence the one who assures me, ever more strongly, 'You are mine'. My hope and prayer is that you who read it will hear something of the same.' At this time of Lent, David Walker explores different aspects of human belonging through the medium of scripture and story in order to help us recognise the different ways in which we are God's beloved. And as we recognise ourselves and our own lives in the narrative of God's engagement with humanity and his creation, he gently challenges us to engage for God's sake with God's world. CWR	A Passion For Christ	Baughen	Michael	9781782599364	£5.99	This Lent, let's renew our passion for Christ. Paul's letters to the Corinthians revealed how passionate he was for Christ, for knowing Christ, for the Church of Christ and for everyone to follow and serve Christ. His own personal comfort was of secondary importance. He was more than willing to follow his Lord even if this meant much personal suffering. Michael Baughen reminds us that 'we share abundantly in the sufferings of Christ' (2 Cor. 1:5). Can we really identify with His sufferings? Most of us live lives of plenty, comfort and choice, so what does this really mean? Over six studies, we will consider how, as followers of Christ, we can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• share in the sufferings of Christ</li> <li>• be a Church marked by love and holiness</li> <li>• share the hope of the gospel</li> <li>• shine the light of Christ's glory</li> <li>• use suffering as a personal testimony</li> <li>• give our lives as a living sacrifice to Christ</li> </ul>	Course	2020
CLC	Grace of Les Miserables, The	Rawle	Matt	9781501887109	£12.99	The hit Broadway Musical, Les Misérables, based on Victor Hugo's 1862 novel, is one of the longest running musicals in the world. This profound story of Jean Valjean's quest for redemption and a changed life has inspired audiences to ponder themes of justice, poverty, freedom, and love. In keeping with his previous works, Matt Rawle brings us to the intersection of Church and Pop Culture by drawing parallels between the popular story and the life of Jesus, another revolutionary who shared a Gospel of justice for those on the margins of life, and in turn, a sacrificial life with the least of us all. Sessions include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Grace—Jean Valjean</li> <li>• Poverty—Fantine</li> <li>• Revolution—Les Amis (The Friends)</li> <li>• Sacrifice—Eponine</li> <li>• Justice—Javert</li> <li>• Hope—Conclusion</li> </ul> Additional components for a six-week Lenten study include a DVD featuring Matt Rawle, a comprehensive leader guide, a youth resource, and Worship Resources Flash Drive.	General reading	2020

Each is accompanied by three short reflections from different perspectives by three of today's very best spiritual writers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Paula Gooder offers reflections on the scriptural narratives;</li> <li>- Stephen Cottrell considers the story from the perspective of personal discipleship;</li> <li>- Philip North explores the story's challenge to mission and witness.</li> </ul>	Sations of cross	2020

dlt	Soul Journey	Siff	Margaret	9780232534429	12.99	The spiritual journey can feel like a climb up a beautiful mountain that we have admired from afar. It looks easy from a distance, but the closer we approach, the harder it appears, until we are on the rockface and struggling to find our way to the top. Our journey through Lent can be a similar experience. For six weeks from Ash Wednesday, through Holy Week to Easter Sunday, Lent is a season of spiritual quest - a challenge to ascend to higher things, to come closer to God. It is a journey of hope and faith that with every step we take, we can move closer to our best - our most fully human - selves. And for this, our soul's journey, we have a guide who calls himself the Way. Soul Journey is a day-by-day companion to help you find the Way, to be revitalised and to discover fresh horizons. Margaret Siff offers 40 daily meditations on passages from the Bible, and a reflection on the journey travelled so far for each Sunday. It has been written both for those who regularly undertake a Lenten study and for those for whom the season is not familiar. All are welcome on this journey - a journey not just for Lent, but for any time and season.	Daily readings	2020
